TECHNICA

Hi there,

Thanks for coming to Technica! We're so excited to have you here this weekend, and we hope we can make your Technica experience a weekend to remember.

The following pages detail some information about the weekend of events, and we've included a brief guide to College Park as well. We're your primary contacts, and we can answer any questions you might have throughout the weekend. You can also look for our other organizing team members, wearing black long sleeve shirts, and volunteers, in black t-shirts with purple lanyards, for any assistance you might need. We're here for you all weekend long! Please don't hesitate to reach out to us at any point — we want you to have a great time!

- With love from Nazifa, Huw, and the Technifam
